If you wish to ship to an “alternate address” we need you to :

(no Amex), no paypal

Option 1- Call your credit card company and have them list a second “ship to” address in their records
+ SIGN APPROPRIATE SECTION ON FORM AND RETURN IT TO US. BY FAX.

Most companies are able to do this, some can not. (If yours does not see below)
Your credit card company’s phone # is usually on the back of the card.)

OR

Option 2 Fill out form, and send a copy of your credit card and a copy of the statement, showing the billing address or fill out form and send a copy of your credit card plus send a legible copy of your driver’s license showing the billing address, (make a copy first, if we can’t read it, you will have to do one of the other options)

We have had a few problems in the past and need to protect you the cardholder as well as ourselves, from fraudulent charges and chargebacks.

Visa, Mastercard and Discover all require us to ship to your billing address,

We will make this exception when you supply the requested information in writing via this form.

Please do not call us up and argue about this policy, it is not up to us, it is up to our credit card processor and your bank. We are making an exception by letting you fill out the form and allowing you to ship to this alternate address.

Thank you. 😊

While we will do our best to ship to the requested address, from time to time mistakes happen and order may ship to your billing address, our system is not automated to handle multiple addresses.

If you are shipping to your actual billing address – you don’t need this form

If you don’t know the billing address, call phone # on back of your card and ask the bank.
Or login to your online bank acct.

You can also print and send a copy of your credit card statement (the part that shows your billing address)– instead of sending card and license.

(we don’t want your SS#, Driver’s lic # etc... put a post it over when you copy them >> we want to see that you are the cardholder and your billing address w/o having to make additional calls to banks and delaying your order.
